The Echo
OF NINETEEN THIRTY-NINE

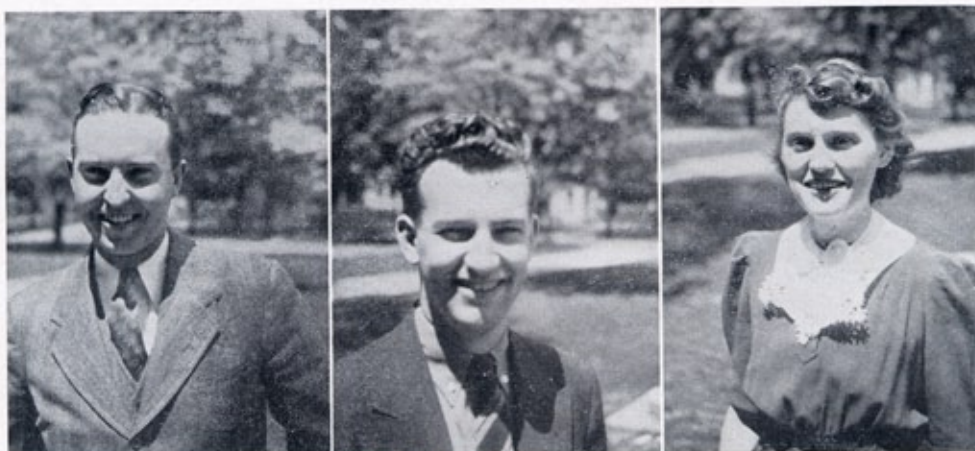

Dedication . .

To John Riley, able coach, gentleman, real sport and graduate of the old school wherein chivalry and quietness prevailed.

May we dedicate our book to him who embodies these qualities of patience, persistence, chivalry and gallantry which we are so want to forget.

Paul Eberman

Farewell To Teachers

We regret the parting of Miss Mary Geno, Mr. Paul Eberman, Mr. Fred Tuthill, and Mr. Glen Brown; who have all been a great help in our school activities.

Miss Geno has been Home Economics teacher in our school for the past two years. To marry.

Mr. Paul Eberman, who has been with us one year taught the eighth grade curriculum and mathematics. To Long Island.

Mr. Fred Tuthill has been agriculture and shop adviser. To Waverly, N. Y.

Mr. Glen Brown taught the music course for two and one-half years. To Long Beach.

We wish them all success in their new positions.

Memoriam

MRS. E. N. HEATH

To a grand lady, who served our school faithfully as a Board member for more years than we like to think of. A love of true beauty, fine art and aspiring young, she gave generously and freely of her time to help make our school what it is.

May you look upon us as worthy.

Hall of Fame

"Our pleasure falls on these old walls; In lasting echoes, dying, dying."

In the first section of our book, we present our hall of fame, knowing full well that it is only a feeble effort at making permanent these fleeting hours. Let us lock them up in our hearts forever as they appear here today.

Senior Class History . .

A few semesters ago, we embarked on the journey of our last four short years of fun and study in Bergen High School. As we look back, what seemed a long time then seems only a few hours now.

As Freshmen, we had one task, the Thanksgiving Dance. In our Sophomore year, we directed the Christmas Dance and helped with other tasks. The Junior Prom was the outstanding event of Junior class of 1938. We also had the management of selling candy to the student body and took charge of the Student Banquet.

The crowning event of all four years was the trip to New York taken during Easter vacation. This was our reward for co-operating with the faculty members and fellow students.

WE, the Class of 1939, leave with memories which will remain for many years.

Junior Class

History

The Freshman Class of 1936-37 started their first year in high school with Mr. Cofran as adviser. Its first big assignment was that of the Freshman Dance which it directed very well.

As Sophomore class of 1937-38, we managed the magazine contest, edited the "Echo" monthly paper and took charge of the "Echo" dance.

The present Junior class has twenty-six members. The officers are: President, Douglas Wilcox; Vice President, Dorothy Brew; Secretary, Louise Arnold; Treasurer, Norma Brew; Adviser, Miss Alberta Burns. The Junior class sponsored the Student Banquet with Greta Wilcox as general chairman. Awards for sports, music and scholasticism were presented to those who were entitled to them. The Junior class has been very successful in its candy sales this year and hope next year will be equally successful.

Hall of Achievement

We have passed into a day when all boys and girls not only go to school but they remain there until they are young ladies and gentlemen. Beyond the tools and subject matter of books we also find it necessary to learn how to live.

We give the second part of our book to the arts of achievement in the field of life. It is necessary to be able to live alone; to learn to work in groups; to have a real friend. To these we pass.

To Live Alone

1. Louie Michael Angelo Hohn. 2. Chub, a lesser moment. 3. Jane, the Indian in her. 4. Louise, watch that slice. 5. Rita on guard. 6. Janet all tangled up. 7. George, Blow Gabriel, blow. 8. Stub, red hot. 9. Misch feinted.

To Have a Friend

1. Floyd and Clarence, Bach goes to town. 2. Janet and Ethel, Paul and Mrs. Revere. 3. Anita and Leon, Spring since Christmas. 4. Elizabeth Arnold, Ethel Sheard, The summer of July 1935. 5. Pop and Hazel, Jack and Jill went up the hill. 6. Mary and Betty no hard feelings. 7. Philip and Louie, The photographer and artist. 8. Gordon, Errol and Doug, The funnels of the Normandy. 9. Jane and Jean, sophisticated swing.

To Live in a Group

1. B-E-R-G-E-N. 2. Summer concert. 3. Typing class. 4. Golden aces. 5th, 6th, 7th, grades to Buffalo. 6. Senior home room. 7. Ready to go. 8. The Mikado.

The Band . .

Of the five musical organizations in the school, the band is no doubt the best known. This unit is fifty strong in uniform. The Band has played a very important part in student life and has helped to advertise our school in the territory.

In the past season the Band participated in many parades throughout the section. Some of the most interesting were at Le Roy May Queen Festival; Fairport Music Festival and Sackett-Merrill-White Post of American Legion at Bergen and Byron on Memorial Day.

This past season they attended many fairs with the Bergen firemen including Spenceport, Caledonia, Hemlock, where they won $15.00 and at Batavia, where they had a day of their own.

An assembly program at Brockport was on the calling list of the last season as well as the Byron Flower Show. Three lawn concerts were given at the school last season.

The most enjoyable appearance of the season were The Annual Musical Evening and the excellent performances at the basketball games.

At Akron the Band won first place in the Sectional State contests and was recommended to the State finals. There were eleven bands competing.

This year the band played "Lustspiel", "Calif of Bagdad", "Overture Militaire", "Martha", and several well known marches.

String Bass—Thelma Aradine.
Piano—Louise Arnold.
Saxophone—Errol Snyder, Douglas Wilcox.
Timpani—Stanley Snyder.
Percussion—Gilbert Rogers, Eugene Howard.

The Orchestra . .

The concert master plucked his G string; the cellos strung the long bow; the bass fiddles groaned; the tympani went into their boom boom—and Beethoven lived again in Bergen. We have in our school many fine things, but among those things which are finest we rate the orchestra. We play because we love fine music and point with pride to winning the State Finals two years in a row.

This season, for old times sake, we dug down into the files to bring out a number of other years "The Fair Maid of Perth." Besides this number also this year was played "Merry Widow" and "Deep Purple".

We desire to wish our concert master for the past four years, Floyd Adams, bon voyage and are putting our faith in Marie St. John, David Gilman and Ruth Peck for the future.

The Chorus

Top Row—Junior Ide, La Verne Gage, George Keller, Leon De Corcoran, Harris Wilcox, Floyd Adams, Phillip Hopson, Clarence Rogers, Kenneth Peachy, Donald Adams, Richard Williams, William Faugh, Mr. Mallare.
Middle Row—Robert Barber, Helen Garzel, Lucille Volkmar, Thelma Aradine, Rose Steedman, Carol Corcoran, Marie St. John, Rita Volkmar, Sybil Jones.
1st. Row—Elizabeth Arnold, Ann Fodge, Katherine Appleton, Lillian Brundage, Beatrice Rogers, Mary Menzie, Anita Howard, Loretta Cakins, Hazel Rogers, Mildred Peck.

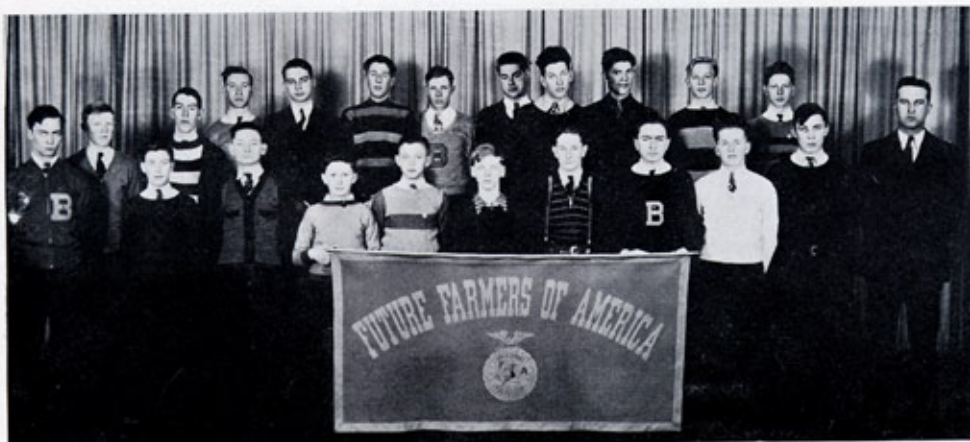

The beauties of group singing have long been recognized and the pleasures derived by the participants are manifold.

During the past season the chorus appeared at the Christmas show, The Spring Festival, the State Contests and the Musical Evening.

The Annual Opera is the high point of the year for the chorus. Four years ago this season was done, "Sun Bonnet Sue" followed by "Pirates of Penzance" which was followed by "Pinafore" while this year they all were topped by "The Mikado" a full symphony accompaniment has been used at the opera for the past three seasons.

Mr. Vincent Mallare directs the chorus and other musical organizations.

"Let's Sing Again, there's music in your heart".

Front Row: H. Wallace, R. Anderson, C. Menzie, G. Blue, J. Menzie, E. Ladd, W. Hayes, J. Steedman, W. Dilcher, R. Mannix, D. Cummings.

Soccer . .

Although Bergen High School remained undefeated throughout the season, it was deprived of the Championship by one point. Many people have classed this year's team as the greatest soccer team in the school's history. One of the most exciting games ever played in the league was a two to one game, in which Bergen defeated Scottsville. Other schools who were defeated included Henrietta, Rush, and Pittsford.

Coach Riley remarked that this year's team was his fastest and cleverest besides having wonderful teamwork. These boys showed they were well drilled by the way they executed several remarkable scoring plays in nearly every game. According to the latest report prospects are said to be exceedingly bright for another good season, as the Freshmen show good signs.

Basketball . .

The game of basketball is one of the most interesting indoor sports. It requires team work and individual co-ordination of mind and muscle.

The coach, Mr. John Riley; Manager, George Peck; Captain, Russel Dews; and the team had a bit of hard luck this season as far as winning games was concerned.

The team played in the B league. Many interesting games were played, especially with Scottsville and Penfield in which Bergen's score was beaten only by a few points.

Baseball . .

Now that basketball season has come to an end, baseball, our national sport, has taken its place as the main sports at Bergen High School.

The boys are practicing every night possible, under Coach Riley, and expect to win many games. They have quite a few veteran players as well as a few new men. The hitting and fielding of the boys has improved greatly over last year and the spirit which the team shows in going through its practice on the field is a good indication of a successful season.
