

Marshall Wrestlers 2d

Madison Wins League Title

Four Madison High wrestlers captured individual titles as the Wilson Parkers captured their fourth straight Interscholastic League title last night at East High.

Madison totaled 96 points, while runnerup Marshall had 74½. East took third place with 65½ points followed by Edison's 55½, Jefferson's 35 and Franklin's 32½.

Madison, which finished in fourth place during the City-Catholic tournament behind champion Bishop Kearney, Cardinal Mooney and McQuaid, was paced by unbeaten wrestlers Larry Tyler (155) and Terry Bruce (215).

Jim Reid, who upset defending champion Dolphus Johnson of Jefferson in the 119-pound class and Lewis Postwaite (167) were the other champions from Madison.

Catholic teams do not participate in tournaments which decide the Interscholastic League representatives.

Section 5 Class A tournament, March 3.

East's Craig Dade won the Most Valuable Wrestler award by scoring an 18-2 victory in the 105-pound finals over Marshall's Chuck Bour. Dade, who was runnerup in the 98-pound class last year, also recorded a pin in the semifinals.

Art Killings of Edison, champion at 119 last season, was the only defending champion. Killings, at 126 this year, decided Larry Rhodes of Madison, 12-2, in the finals.
