PHOTO BELOW: It seems to us that Dom Aloisio of East Rochester has been mistaken for other wrestlers once or twice already this season by the Rochester city newspapers. Just for the record, here's a shot of the real Dom Aloisio riding Geneva's John White in a match in the recent Webster Tournament. Dom won this match 6-1.

Referee for the GC-Brighton meet was Roscoe Hastings. After the meet, looking through issue #5 of Wrestling News, he pointed out that in the Churchville-Rush meet reported in that issue, Ben Palguta was disqualified for unsportsmanlike conduct, NOT unnecessary roughness. We thank Mr. Hastings for calling this to our attention.

- 177 - Ben Palguta (CC) pinned John Schembra (I) 3:33
- Hwt - John Reeder (I) pinned Terry Nau (CC) 5:53

It's kind of hard to imagine Irondequoit giving up six pins, but that's exactly what happened! Mike Muehleisen started off a string of four in a row which gained the Saints the victory. The 138 pound match was an exciting one with Kevin Bumbarger showing exceptional leverage.
