Bruce Hadsell, Dennis Jones, Mike Chappelle, and Ron Langdon watch the action during one of Canandaigua's many dual meet victories. The Braves are heavy favorites to capture the Section 5 team championship in the February tournament.

The two Monroe County wrestlers above came to the recent Bishop Kearney-Eastridge dual meet incog - nito. Can you guess their real identities?

INTELLECTUAL FISHER GRAPPLERS WILL HAVE BIGGER
SCHEDULE IN THE 1973-74 SEASON

St. John Fisher College's wrestling team has an academic average of 3.0, which is equivalent to a "B". Don Paukett is carrying a perfect 4.0 average while brother Dave is struggling along with a 3.9 average.

Coach Mike Cronmiller informs us that his matmen will have a much, much bigger schedule next winter including five more dual meets than this year and four more tournaments. Among the added tournaments are a Greco tourney in Alberta, Canada, and a freestyle tourney in Toronto.

Several of Fisher's dual meets may be wrestled freestyle next winter due to mutual consent of the coaches.

Needless to say, the big match of this meet was the one at 157 pounds between Clay Barnard of the Cadets and Craig Cody of the Saints. The referee warned Barnard for stalling in the first period and a short time after that, Cody took the Hilton captain down and put him on his back for a near fall. The score was 4-0 in favor of Cody after one period. The only scoring in the second period was an escape by Barnard. Barnard rode Cody out in the third period to gain a point riding time and also gained two near falls. the first worth three points and the second worth two. It was Barnard's superior mat wrestling that made the difference in the end. Giving credit where it's due, Cody really looked strong on his feet and had a couple of near take-downs including a real close one in the second period that was beaten by the buzzer.

This was a match of solid excitement and the fans boo-ed and cheered quite loudly throughout the contest.

179 - Jim Babcock (I) pinned Rob Goodwin (GA) 3:14
Hwt - John Reeder (I) dec. Larry Ras (GA) 9-8

Jim Babcock was the hero in this meet with a really cool pin. However, John Reeder's win also gave the Indian fans a lot of satisfaction. Tony Oliveri and Pete Kundin also were particularly impressive and Don Martynec likewise did a fine job.

SPENCERPORT 25, GATES-CHILI 22
January 12, 1973 at Gates

100 - Fred Serpe (GC) dec. Ron Brongo (S) 7-6

179 - Mike Macaluso (GC) pinned Russ Tronolone (S) 1:54
Hwt - Tony Fichera (GC) pinned Mike Barnes (S) 1:49

Ken Brongo's victory over Tom Mandara made the difference.
Brongo got the takedown for a 2-0 first period lead. Mandara escaped in the second but was again taken down and gave up a two point near fall before escaping again. The score was 6-2 in favor of Brongo going into the third period. Mandara was given a penalty point in that period. Both grapplers had been warned for stalling, Mandara in the first period and Brongo in the third.

Gary Baxter got the winning points for the Rangers despite being down 2-1 going into the third period. Gates' regular starter, John Parks, had been injured at Penfield earlier in the week and this may have ultimately cost the Spartans the meet against the Rangers.

SPENCERPORT 24, PITTSFORD 19

The match at 140 pounds was scoreless after one period.
Spencerport won both that match and the 179 pound match by riding time. The 128 and 134 pound matches were also very close contests.

As you can see, the series is all-even at three apiece. Which school will break the tie?

Spencerport's Dave Travis, right, was the only four-time winner in the history of the Ranger rivalry with Eastridge. Dave graduated in June after amassing a career record of 77-12-5.
