

East's Johnny Rutledge is on his way to decisioning Mooney's Joe Seil.

Kings gain 3-point lead

Bishop Kearney took the lead in team scoring after the preliminary and quarterfinal rounds of the City-Catholic league wrestling championships yesterday at East High.

The Kings, who tied with Madison and McQuaid for the Division I title, accumulated 14½ points. McQuaid was second with 11½ and Madison followed with 11, having lost a point because of unsportsmanlike conduct.

A point was awarded to each team for an individual victory by decision, default for forfeit. A pin was worth 2 points and a superior decision (by 10 or more points) was worth 1½ points.

In tonight's action, an individual first place will be worth 10 points in team scoring, second place worth 7, third place 4, and fourth place 2.

Bishop Kearney registered 4 pins and a superior decision. In the 129 pound match, Larry Phillips pinned Norm Felton of Jefferson; at 158 pounds, Mike Spitalo pinned at 32 seconds George Youmas of Charlotte; in the heavyweight (218 pound) match, Mark Nicolini pinned Dan O'Donnell of Marshall in 50 seconds; and in the unlimited match (250 pounds), Curtis Robinson pinned James Bruce of Madison in 3:04.

Joe Berardi of Kearney scored a superior decision over Etural Baris of Franklin in the 119-pound match. All of the Kearney victories came during the quarterfinal round.

McQuaid had 3 pins and 3 10-point decisions. Mike Brennan pinned Gary Damico of East at 5:35 of the 148-pound match and George Todd pinned Robert Morone of Edison at 1:55 of the 158-pound match. Both were quarterfinal victories. In the preliminary rounds, the Knights' Ron Zeno pinned Ron Allen of Edison at 5:09 of the 170-pound match.

Steve Wu (129 pounds), Steve Miller (108 pounds) and Chuck Lawless (115 pounds) registered the superior decisions for the Knights.

Madison had 3 pins, by James Jacobs (132 pounds), Wal Clyburn (158 pounds) and Eric Davis (250 pounds).

The semifinals are scheduled for 4:30 with the consolation and final rounds scheduled for and 7:30 p.m.

Runnerup Comets clobber Geneva

Rush-Henrietta finished its season at 13-2 with a 41-8 victory over Geneva in a non-league wrestling meet last night at Rush-Henrietta.

Ron Grubaugh, Bob Kendall, Dave Wachtman scored pins for the Comets. Rush-Henrietta was runnerup in the Eastern Division of the Monroe County League.

Indiana ties mark, shatters another

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP)