STEVE TAYLOR, Brockport-5 senior, penetrates deep on a double leg TD versus Dave D'Agostino of Iroquois-6 in the semifinals of the Canandaigua-5 Bradshaw Tournament. Taylor won this match 21 to 6, then scored a fall in the finals. It was his second straight tournament victory within three weeks. The other was at the Spencerport Tournament, where he decked Whitehall senior Chris Terry in the finals. Taylor, top ranked at 145 pounds, was third at last year's state meet. New York 100 Rankings!

Wrestlers, make sure your coach submits a ranking card for you. We need this information to consider you for inclusion to the New York 100, which is New York Wrestling New' First Annual List of the Top 100 HS Wrestlers in the state.

The New York 100 will contain detailed information on each wrestler's career. Determination of the Top 100 will be done by a computer ranking process.

College wrestling coaches across the country subscribe to New York Wrestling News. They will also be purchasing the New York 100. Inclusion in this list will make them more aware of you.

Make sure your ranking card is sent in now and then after March 3rd. Parents, booster club members, and fans: If your coach has not sent in a ranking card on your favorite wrestler, you can send one in yourself!!!

Tom Shifflet: No Longer Embarrassed

Sweet Home-6 Senior Gears Up for State Title

Last March, fans were anticipating a great match-up in the 132 pound state final, which pitted John Bena, Section Two, against Tom Shifflet of Section Six. Both wrestlers looked years ahead of the rest of the field. Just to make it to Syracuse, Bena had to beat a couple of guys who normally would have made the finals themselves. And Shifflet carried a rugged 42-1 record with him. On top of all that, both were sons of their wrestling coaches.

Shifflet had scored a pin and wins of 17-4 and 22-8 to make it to the finals. Against Bena, he started in his usual aggressive manner, firing leg takedowns one after another.

After about a minute into the first period, he shot a high crotch, and Bena defended. Instantly, Shifflet switched off to a double, but again Bena countered with a reverse headlock. Using superb hip control, he yanked Shifflet onto his back, then slapped in a double grapes hold. Within a few seconds, he secured the fall, leaving the crowd stunned.

"I was really embarrassed," says Tom Shifflet now. "Up until my match, all the other finals matches were real exciting and hard fought. Then I made a bad move, and it was over before I had a chance to make it a better match."

He seems to be making up for it now, though. He is currently 16-0. Fifteen of his wins have come by pin or technical fall.

The only full match ended in an 11-5 win. Tom is ranked number one at 132 pounds this month, and most fans expect him to win it all this year. And it's about time he did. After all, he's been taking his share of silver medals, and he seems due for some gold. Besides his state runner-up finish, he has won four silver medals in Empire State Games action and a silver medal in the Freestyle States. And as a sophomore, he was runner-up in Section Six. When he first cracked the varsity as a 7th grade 91 pounder, he posted a 20-6 record (11 pins).

The first four tournaments he entered he placed - you guessed it - second.

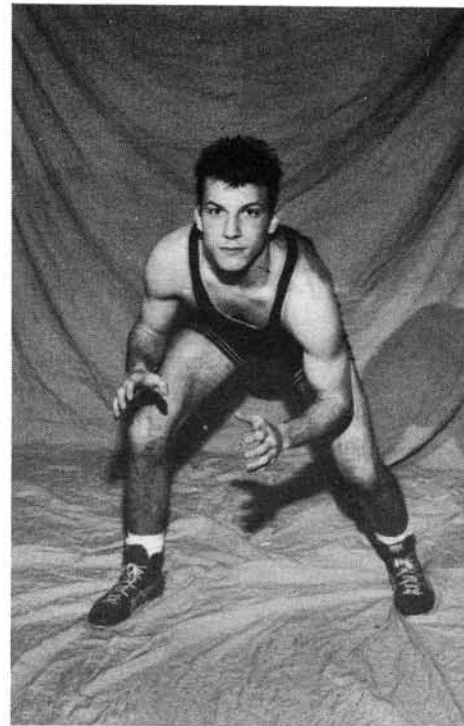

Along the way, though, he's gained a lot of experience in all styles of wrestling. And he owns impressive wins over Top Ten wrestlers, including Steve Taylor, Joe LoPresti, Chris Terry, Ed Moak, Brandon MacNaught, and others. And his two tournament wins this year also netted him two MOW awards. With a career mark of 142-15, he definitely has the credentials to win a state title.

Shifflet is a dominating wrestler. His philosophy is, why beat you by 5 or 10 points when he can beat you by 15 or 20 points, or better yet, by pin. On the mat, he only goes in one direction - at you. He has two gears, and if you can't keep up with this gear, you definitely won't like his other gear.

Tom is an Honor Roll student with an average in the 90's. He is looking to attend a Division I school and eventually become a Physical Education Teacher and Wrestling Coach.

Shifflet is a great bet to make it out of Section Six without any trouble at all. At the states, he should make it to the finals, and then it will be his turn to cause a little embarrassment to someone else.

TOM SHIFFLET, Sweet Home-6 senior, is currently undefeated and top ranked at 132 pounds. He was NY State silver medalist last year, and is aiming for a gold this year.

Jeff Duque Injured; Probably out for Season

Valley Central-9 Junior Injured in Car Accident; will most likely miss the rest of season

Valley Central-9 junior Jeff Duque, two-time state placewinner, was injured in an early January car accident and will probably be forced to sit out the remainder of the season. Duque was seriously injured when his car slid on ice and crashed through a fence and into a tree. He had a punctured lung and four fractured ribs in the accident.

After the accident, Jeff was admitted into the intensive care unit. He has improved a great deal since then, but it looks like he will not be able to compete this year. And although wrestling is important to him, he is also concerned with school. Said Duque, "My school work comes first. I'm more interested in how this is going to affect my grades. I'm interested in college and you can't go anywhere without good marks."

With grades in the upper 80's, Jeff hopes to get into a quality Division I college after his senior year. He started this year looking unbeatable, and a lot of Section 9 fans who have seen him were convinced he'd win a state title this year. Last year, Jeff was third in Syracuse (105 pounds), and as a freshman, he took a sixth place at 98. This year at 119 pounds, he is 10-0 with victories at the Tri-Valley (MOW) and Mid-Hudson Tournaments. Both competitions are considered to be amongst the toughest in the state.

At the Tri-Valley, he blitzed Dan Faldzinski of Vernon Verona Sherrill, 11-2 in the finals. At the tough Mid Hudson, he pinned Robert Burke, Washingtonville (1:07), Peter Yi, John Jay (1:30), and David Conway, Longwood (5:25). Then he topped Section 8 champ and state placewinner Craig Schlifstein of Baldwin, 5-2. Conway and Schlifstein are both Top 10 wrestlers.

Jeff's coach, Bob Zifchock feels there is not enough time for Jeff to heal. There is only four weeks left in the season before the Orange County League championships, the qualifier for the Sectionals. Zifchock won't let Duque wrestle unless he is 100 percent healed, and said, "I would feel that way regarding any wrestler on this team. It's painful to have any of them injured. But this just happens to be one of the top wrestlers on the team. Jeff is our number one gun."

Duque is only four wins short of 100 victories. As an eight grader, he went 12-3, winning the Mid Hudson tournament and earning MOW honors. In his freshman year, he also won the Mid Hudson tourney and went 35-2. His only losses that year were in Syracuse in March. And last year, he went 39-3, taking third at 105 behind Frank Fronhofer and Juan Carlos Garcia. His ten wins this year brings his career record to 96-8. Had Jeff's fortune been better, he would have had over 150 career wins before he's finished (and possibly a couple of state titles).

Says Jeff of his situation, "I feel my injuries have taught me that I want to win more than I ever wanted anything before in my life. My plans and goals for next year in wrestling will even be more fervently sought after."

Concerning college, Jeff recently said, "One concern I do have is being considered for college. I do feel the colleges who are considering me as a candidate will understand my reason for missing most of this season." It's a sure bet they will understand; they'll also realize that Jeff Duque is a blue chip candidate for any collegiate program.

Both photos on this page show Jeff Duque in action earlier this season.

Profile: Matt McLennan
 Corning Senior is a Darkhorse

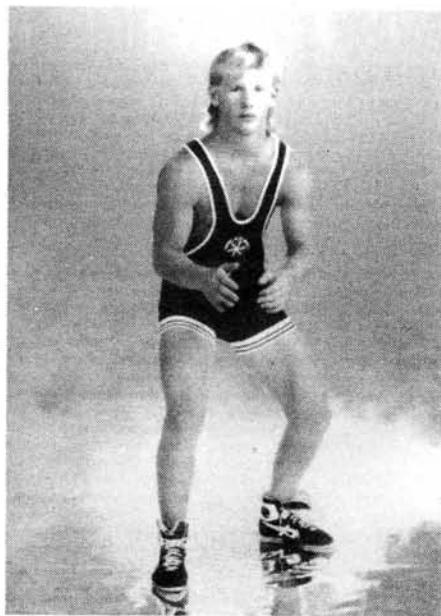

Every year, it seems like there's a kid who comes out of nowhere to surprise all the other wrestlers and experts by grabbing a state title, or even a runner-up medal. And then when you look at the guy's record, you realize he really didn't come out of nowhere. He was there all along, working hard, beating the big names, but somehow not getting the recognition he probably deserves.

Matt McLennan, 138 pounds, Corning-4, is probably one of those guys. He's been around - the past two years, he's gone 30-2 and 31-4. Last year he won two MOW awards and took second in Section Four to Brandon MacNaught of Walton. He previously beat MacNaught, and owns wins over Top Ten wrestlers Kent Maslin, Doug Shaffer, Chad Shelton, David Brainerd, Marc Geer, David Colgan, Tim Godoy, and some other big name wrestlers. Any of these guys could conceivably win a state title, and so could McLennan.

So far this season, Matt is 16-0, with 12 wins coming by pins another by technical fall. He's won the Johnson City and Deposit Tournaments, and looks well-prepared for this season. For his career, he's been in 15 tournaments; he took 8 first's, 4 seconds, 2 thirds, and a fourth. He's never not placed in any tournament, and he is undefeated in dual meets. His record is now 81-8.

Matt only started the sport as a freshman. He put 10 years into hockey, then one day just stepped onto a mat, loved it, and threw away his thermal underwear. He still enjoys other sports, but wrestling is it for him. He is devoted to weight lifting, and it shows in his wrestling. For a 138 pounder, he is exceptionally powerful.

McLennan has made the high honor roll twice this year, and plans on going to a Division I college and becoming an All American. It's a distinct possibility, as is a state medal this year. Don't say we didn't warn you!

MATT McLENNAN, senior from Corning-4, owns some impressive victories over Top 10 wrestlers. At 138 this year, he has a good chance of winning a state title. He is currently undefeated.

Profile: Heavyweight Percy Clarke

Marcellus-3 Senior Has Good Shot at Title

Percy Clarke, pictured on this month's cover, has been a four-year wrestler for the Marcellus Mustang wrestling team. He is a very coachable, likeable person. He has been a three-sport athlete, excelling in football and lacrosse.

Percy started on the football team as a freshman. He is currently shooting to become the first 100-win wrestler in school history. You don't often see a heavyweight with 100 wins, especially at 215 pounds for four years. His record now stands at 85-18-1.

Clarke is also looking to become only the second wrestler in his league to win four league championships. Much of his success can be attributed to his off-season wrestling at the Mohawk Valley Wrestling Club, and the work of assistant coach for the past three years - Russ Sutherland, former University of Buffalo heavyweight All American.

Percy has set high goals for himself this season. He wants to win the Section III title. After finishing third as a soph and second as a junior (a close 4-2 loss to eventual state champ Ron Vitullo), this could be his year. This won't be an easy task, as this section has some very good heavyweights. After high school, Percy will continue wrestling in college, along with majoring in Physical Education and Recreation.

Profile: Kareem Johnson Niagara Falls Junior Poised for State Honors

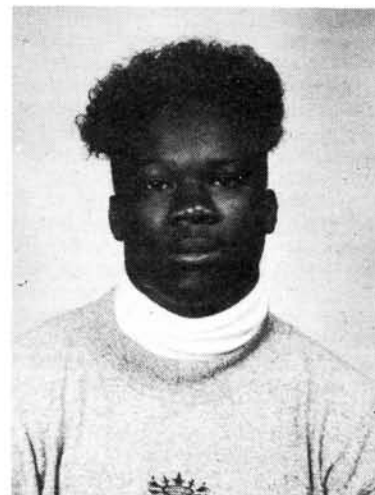

Kareem Johnson of Niagara Falls-6 is only a junior this year. But you wouldn't know it from watching any of his matches. He is an extremely dominant, volatile 155 pounder who is undefeated so far this year. He specializes in high-scoring matches that look like Kareem Johnson Take-down Clinics. He mixes a lot of upper and lower body attacks that confound most opponents. And when he does face an opponent who manages to hang with him, Johnson demonstrates poise and a knack for pulling out the win.

Last month, Johnson walked through the rugged Jamestown Tournament, pinning or tech-falling everyone. Most recently, he won the Niagara Officials Tournament. His one close match was a 7-6 overtime thriller over Top Ten wrestler Mike Luick, also of Section 6 (Niagara Wheatfield). Kareem will most likely drop down to 145 for the state qualifiers, while Luick seems rock-solid at 155.

A possible state match-up would pit Section 5's top-ranked Steve Taylor, Brockport, against Johnson. These two aren't strangers; Johnson pulled out a last-second win over Taylor over summer en route to an Empire State Games gold medal (in which he beat Tom Shifflet of Sweet Home-6 6-5 in the finals). Shifflet will most likely be at 138 for the state qualifiers, and with Johnson (145) and Luick (155), Western New York looks good in the middleweights.

As an eighth grader (his first year), he was 13-10 at 132 pounds. Kareem was 25-3 as a freshman 138 pounder. He won a couple of tournaments and placed third in the state qualifiers. Last year, he was 29-5, with four tournament wins, including the Section 6 title. In the states, he won three times and lost twice without placing. All his losses were close decisions to place-winners.

Kareem wrestles all year round, and his favorite style is Greco. It shows in his wrestling. He also plays football and runs track. So far, several colleges have sent letters of interest, but Johnson is not sure where he wants to go or what he wants to study. Of course, he has plenty of time to decide, but then again, if he picks up a state title or two, he'll have a lot more schools to pick from!

KAREEM JOHNSON, only a junior, is favored to win a medal at this year's state tournament. Johnson is undefeated so far this year, with most wins coming by fall or tech fall.

Seamus Lyman: NYS Kingpin

Watertown Senior Perhaps Most Recruited of all NY Wrestlers

You'd think he would have been nervous last year before the state finals - Seamus Lyman, that is. Sure, the Watertown-3 junior had placed second in the states the year before, winning 36 matches before losing to two-time 145 pound state champ Jamie St John of Port Jefferson-11. And he did own a 33-0-1 record coming into the 155 pound finals match.

But on the other side of the coin, he had a pretty rough time making it to the finals. After a hard-fought 7-1 win, he went over-time with muscleman Emilio Collins, Tappan Zee-9, before coming out on top 5-2. And he was down 5-0 at one point. In semifinals, he slid by rugged Chip Foster, Guilderland-2, 3-1. In that match, he re-injured his thumb which had surgery only a few weeks earlier.

And then in the finals, the biggest obstacle stood facing him on the other side of the circle - JJ Stanbro of Johnson City-4. Stanbro is New York State's winningest high school wrestler - no one has won more at this level than he has (188 wins). And Stanbro's list of accomplishments at all levels stretches past the boundary of human memory.

Despite all this, Lyman wasn't nervous or scared before his historical match. "I was nervous the year before, and lost 12-5. I didn't want to do that again. Before the match, I felt confident, and I think he felt he wouldn't win." And about that thumb, Seamus taped up both thumbs so JJ wouldn't know about the injury.

In the first period, both men seemed cautious. They did open up after awhile, but there was no score. In the second, Lyman took only 14 seconds to escape. He added a two-point takedown later on, and in the third, JJ escaped. The match ended with both on their feet and Seamus on top 3-1.

This year, he'll be at 167. He's got 132 wins against 15 losses and a couple of ties. Before he's finished, he may have close to 160 career wins. Afterwards, he'll have to sort out the many college scholarship offers. So far, about 60 colleges have made contact with him, most of them more than once. He's got it narrowed down to about 6 or 7 at this point.

Lyman, who has played lacrosse and soccer all four years, will just wrestle in college. He will probably cut down to 158 pounds.

In Syracuse, you might see the name Lyman more than once. Seamus' younger brother, Paul, has been tearing through opponents almost as dominantly as Seamus. Still a junior, Paul sports a 15-0 record with a couple of tournament wins. Both have been in it for a lot of years. They got their start from a bunch of uncles who have quite a lot of state titles amongst themselves - the Capones, Pete, Tom, and Jim. With these workout partners, Seamus probably had better moves in the backyard than did most high school sophomores or juniors.

Lyman, who is Vice President of the Student Council, was Class President as a freshman and sophomore at Watertown. He keeps busy with sports during the year, and also does some wrestling in the offseason. This past summer, he went on a two-week exchange trip to Hungary with SU's Gene Mills as head coach.

The Section Three tournament this year is held in the War Memorial. This might give champs from that section a slight advantage, as they will be a little more familiar with the often-intimidating surroundings. But for Seamus Lyman, it doesn't matter. He doesn't need that advantage. He came, he saw, he conquered, and if history doesn't repeat itself this year, it will be the biggest upset in the state.

Profile: Mike Luick

Section 6 Over-Achiever looks for Return Trip to Syracuse

Mike Luick, Niagara Wheatfield-6 senior, will be challenging for the Section 6 title next month at 155 pounds. So far this year, he is 10-1, with his only loss coming against state representative Kareem Johnson of Niagara Falls-6. He is undefeated in duals, and has been since tenth grade, when he went 28-5.

Last year, Luick was 36-3. He won four tournaments, including the Section 6 title. He was selected on the All League Team, and was the team's MOW. Despite not placing in the state tournament at 145 pounds, he gained valuable experience there, and will be a favorite should he return in March. Currently, his career record stands at 74-9-1. If all goes according to plan for him, he will crack the 100 win mark by March.

As team captain last year and this year, Mike has proven to be an excellent leader and a major reason for his teams' successes. Described by those who know his as an over-achiever, Luick is a totally dedicated athlete. He sets high goals for himself, and then does the necessary things to attain those goals, like summer wrestling, weight lifting, and technique camps.

In addition to wrestling, Mike was a two-year All League and All Western New York football player. This past season, he won the Division III Defensive Player of the Year Award. He also runs the sprints in spring track. When he isn't working out or competing, Luick can be found waterskiing, fishing, or playing the drums. Or working on his antique can collection.

Mike plans on attending a four-year college next year. He will work on a degree in Biology and Secondary Education. His current grade average is in the high 80's, and he is on the Merit Roll.

Mike is extremely well-rounded and hard-working. Says his coach, Armand Cacciatore, "Mike excels because he is a fierce competitor. In all my 32 years of coaching, Mike is one of the finest athletes I've ever coached." Luick may have his hands full in qualifying for the state tournament again, as Section 6 looks solid in the middle weights. But if he does make it - don't bet the house that he won't - he will certainly be a threat for first place.

MIKE LUICK, Niagara Wheatfield-6 senior, 155 pounds, participated in last year's state tournament, and is aiming for a return trip and a medal this year.

Troy Bouzakis on Winning

Pine Bush-9 two-time state champ talks of winning in a recent letter

In a recent letter from Troy Bouzakis, two-time NY state champ and four-time place-winner, the Pine Bush senior outlined his thoughts on the reasons for his success.

Winning

Win or Lose? Which is it? Win, of Course! Winning is by far the most strived for in an athletic competition. The satisfaction of defeating an opponent and the sensation of success is a very fulfilling feeling for the athlete as well as the loved ones supporting him.

Being a winner is by no means a secret. Its one of those things that doesn't come overnight, especially in wrestling. Dedication, hard work, and support are needed from parents and friends, as well as from the coach.

Dedication plays a very important part. Wrestling is a hard sport to be dedicated to. There are many obstacles. Cutting weight, mental fatigue, physical abuse and emotional stress seem to lead the race. So it is important to keep your head screwed on straight and not let anything or anyone screw it off!

Hard Work: 100% is not good enough. There is no limit on how far your body can be pushed. While training on or off the mat you must always realize that you mind tires before your body.

Support: There is nothing like support. Mothers washing workout clothes, fathers watching diets, friends and family at your matches, and your coach critiquing your wrestling. Support is a very motivating feeling. It is very difficult to win without it!

All winners know these aspects play a major role in winning, if not, they are just plain lucky. If your goal is to become a winner you must realize you will never reach it until your mind has already been there!

When I followed my own suggestions and thoughts, I was a winner. When I lost focus on them, I was a loser. In conclusion, Winning is Great! Losing sucks!

Regards,

Troy Bouzakis

Editor's Note: Troy Bouzakis currently has only two losses (both one point decisions) in his career as compared to over 150 wins.

For the season, he is 16-0 with all 16 victories by pin. While he may not finish as having the record for the most wins, he will certainly finish his career as having the best overall record of any wrestler in the history of New York state wrestling! Look for his to challenge for his third state title in March.

Send in your ranking card today, and then again after March 3rd to be considered for the New York 100!!!

TROY BOUZAKIS, a senior from Pine Bush-9, owns the best record in New York State history: 152-2-0. He is a two-time state champ. He also placed third and second. This year, he will be aiming for his third state title, as well as his 170th win. In a recent letter to NYWN (left), Troy talks about winning in wrestling. Profile: Brockport's Steve Taylor

Blue Collar Wrestler has Stranglehold on Top Rank at 145

Brockport is a small college town 30 miles west of Rochester in upstate New York. Brockport High's coach is Woody Vandenburg, who was a 1981 NCAA Division III Champ for SUNY Brockport. Vandenburg, who is originally from Queensbury-2, was a John Riggins-type wrestler. He'd come right at you, and then over you. Woody had nothing fancy when he pinned his way to the 167 pound national title. He'd shoot, the guy would sprawl, he'd shoot again, the guy would sprawl once again, and then he'd shoot one more time. This time, though, the guy wouldn't sprawl so good, and Vandenburg would get his two points. Pretty much blue collar - but it was great action.

Steve Taylor has a lot of his coach's style in him. He's aggressive and confrontational. When you mix it up with him, you'll feel it the next day. He doesn't seem to use a lot of fancy moves, yet he wins consistently, blue collar style. But then when you expect him to have a close match, or maybe even lose, he breaks the mold and demolishes the other guy.

He works out year round, and never gives up on himself. Last year, he went 31-7, peaking at the Sectionals and states. He took a strong third place behind two-timer Jamie St John (Port Jeff-11) and Don Duell (Mexico-3). And despite having a difficult time getting out of Section 5, he had the confidence to believe he'd make it to the states if he worked hard enough.

This year, Taylor is ranked number one at 145 pounds. He's undefeated, and has won two major tournaments - the Spencerport Bernabi/Teike and the Canandaigua Bradshaw competitions. Both times, he pinned quality opponents in the finals. He seems to wrestle up to the level of his competition.

At Spencerport, he looked so-so in earning a 7-1 win over second-stringer Eric Vasquez of Spencerport-5. Meanwhile, Chris Terry, Whitehall-2, looked impressive in posting a methodical win over seasoned veteran Tom Foss of Spencerport in the other semifinal. But in the finals, it was all Taylor. He led all the way, then scored a stunning pin in the middle of the third period. Terry is top ranked at 138; he may decide to stay there after his one-sided match against Taylor.

The funny thing about Taylor is the fact that he wasn't this good his entire career. In fact, he broke into the varsity as a sophomore and only had an 11-10 record. Not bad, but not exactly what you'd expect of a guy who would soon be one of New York's top middleweights. A lot of summer wrestling is how Steve improved. He worked out with two clubs and went to every event offered. And even then, he had to pull off Section 5's biggest upset to make it to Syracuse.

Last year, Taylor had lost to Rush Henrietta's Scott Reddick twice during the year. Both times were pretty much close matches, although they were one-sided (15-10 and 9-6). Reddick was undefeated going into his Sectional finals match with Taylor. He was an unorthodox wrestler, using a lot of wierd moves in beating everyone that year. In the finals, though, Taylor managed to pull off a 6-5 win. It came down to the last few moments. When the smoke cleared, most fans were stunned; several of them even dissappointed.

Yet Taylor seemed to gain confidence and won every match at the states except for a hotly-contested one point semi's loss to Don Duell. Without even a few day's rest, Taylor was working out for the off-season events.

Wrestling has taught him a lot - "you have to work hard for whatever you want, and that's the only way to get the things you want." Like probably a state title...

Each year the Windsor tournament proves to be one of the toughest in the state. In the past, the quality of wrestling at Windsor has been outstanding. Coaches feel that this tournament is a good indicator of how their wrestlers may do in top notch competition. Since 1963, 46 Windsor champions have gone on to win 58 state titles. Many others have won League, Class and Sectional championships as well. It has truly proven to be a tournament of champions. The highlight of this year's finals was the 132 pound class, where Huntington's Ken Johnson defeated Waverly's Doug Shaffer 13-5. Shaffer was a 1988 state champ (105 pounds) who finished fourth last year at 126 pounds.

MOW: Steve Taylor, Brockport 145
Most Pins Jerry Behe, Roy-Hart, 4 in 3:11

As usual, this tournament provided fans with plenty of excitement, as it has for the past 24 years. Among the highlights were:

Jeff Reese, only a seventh grader from Elmira Southside, pinned his way to the 91 pound title. He scored two first-period falls and one third period technical fall.

98 pound champ, Jason Wartinger, Cheektowaga, looked sharp in taking the title. He scored a fall, a 10-1 win, and a 3-2 win in the finals over John Morello. Wartinger is currently ranked number one in the state at 91 pounds.

Gates Chili's Jeff Mohr, 119, scored a pin and a 15-5 win before meeting North Rose-Wolcott's unorthodox Gary DeCarr. Mohr, a state Greco champ, eeked out a 10-8 victory and then a 5-4 win over Section 5 Sectional runner-up Dan Shirley of LeRoy to claim the title.

Muscular Shawn Bauer, Gates Chili, pinned or tech-failed all four of his opponents at 126.

At 145 pounds, Steve Taylor, Brockport, nailed Whitehall's Chris Terry in the finals. Taylor is currently ranked number one in the state, with Terry in the top five at 138. Terry looked impressive in making it to the finals by pinning two and controlling Spencerport's aggressive Tom Foss 6-3. With his win, Taylor cemented his number one ranking.

Guilderland's Chip Foster continuing his winning ways by decking or tech-falling everyone on the way to the title at 167.

Roy-Hart's (Section 6) Jerry Behe scored an amazing four pins in only 3:11. In the first period he stuck Roman Yagnitinski of Pittsford-5 in ten seconds, then nailed Kevin Moore, Brockport-5 in 1:15. In the semi's, he decked a surprised Jamie Huntington, Whitehall-2 in 25 seconds before pinning Lancaster-6 heavyweight Tony Zito in 1:21.

This tournament was perhaps the most exciting of all Holiday tournaments, as it had an abundance of excellent match-ups, upsets, close hard-fought decisions, and pins (259 of 468 bouts were pins).

At 119, Jeff Duque controlled Craig Schilfstein of Baldwin 5-2. Both are Sectional champs. Duque pinned everyone else, including David Conway of Longwood in the semifinals. Conway beat everyone else easily in claiming third place.

At 126, Juan Carlos Garcia, state runner-up at 105, lost to Neil Rudden of Monroe Woodbury, 12-10. Garcia then forfeited out due to injury, and Rudden went on to take second place to Mike Castro.

At 98, Mat Klucina looked like a sectional contender with three falls and a convincing 7-1 OT decision to take first.

Chris Conway, 112, Longwood, won each match convincingly in taking the top honors.

Others who looked equally impressive were Mike Quaglio, Charlton Woodley (who went unscored upon), Heath Macaluso, Nick Hall, and Joe Yanis. In particular, Hall looked most dominating, and many fans fully expect him to win a state title this year.
