

WRESTLING ROUNDUP

Webster Thomas rolls on

STAFF REPORTS

Robert Eskander, ranked first in the state, won at 215 pounds and visiting Webster Thomas defeated district rival Webster Schroeder 48-20 in a Monroe County wrestling match Thursday.

Due to a change in divisions, it was the first meeting between the schools since 2005.

Eskander, last season's state runner-up, pinned Tim Ventura of Schroeder in 2:28.

At 135, Nate Sengillo pinned Schroeder's Troy Cudzilo in 3:06 for the Titans (2-5, 1-1).

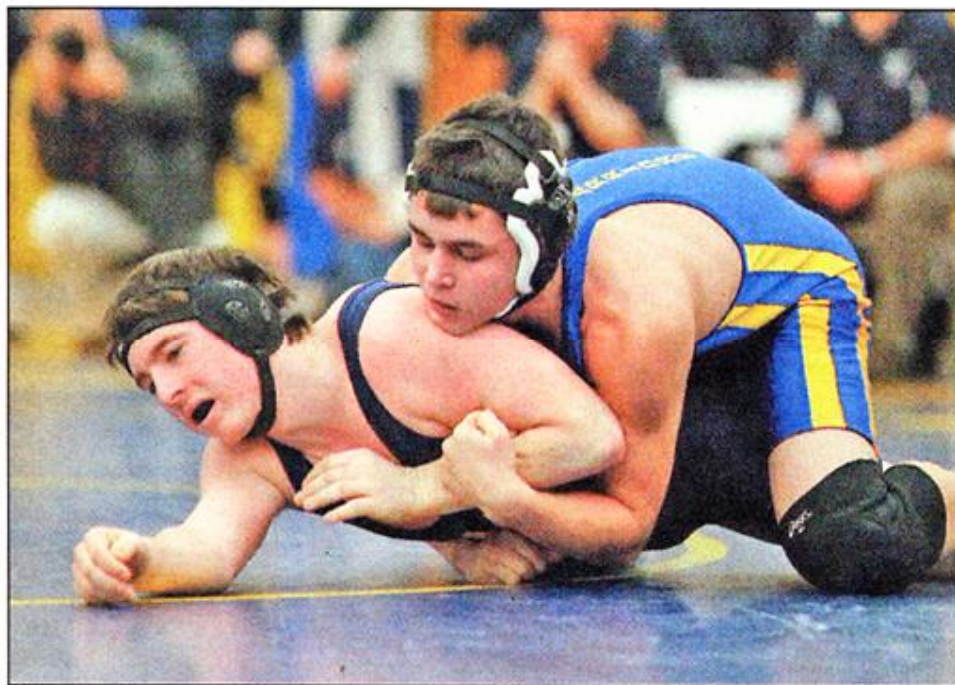

Nick Wilbert defeated Jeremy Poliszuk by technical fall, 20-4 in 5:16 for the Warriors (3-7, 0-2).

"That was a nice match; Nick did a good job," Schroeder coach Dean Salvaggio said. "He had a very good opponent, too. The three pins were big for Thomas, along with those 18 points for forfeits; that's tough to overcome."

The renewal of the rivalry also took place on the school's alumni night.

"It was fun. Coach (Neil Cook of Thomas) and I used to coach together for five or six years," Salvaggio said. "It was good to see all the old alumni back, as well as a lot of great people coming out to support us."
